1. Barnstable Pottery Art Gallery

Kevin Nolan 508-362-1113
3267 Main Street, Route 6A, P.O. Box 1243, Barnstable, MA 02630
Open year-round: Tues.–Sun. 10–6.
Stop by my studio where visitors and vessels commingle with the creative process of a potter's life. Questions and conversation are commonplace and play an integral role in philosophy and design. Work of all kinds for indoor and outdoor enjoyment abound. Group demonstrations by appointment.
Additional parking next door behind the fire house.

2. Mill Stone Pottery

Gail Turner 508-385-4214
766 Route 6A, P.O. Box 120, Dennis, MA 02638
Website: www.millstonepottery.com
Open Summer, Fall and early Winter: Mon.–Sat. 10:30–5
Jan.–April: Call 508-385-4214 for hours.
Rich wax resist patterns, textural imprints and mottled glazes highlight my wheel-thrown and hand-built functional pottery. Visit this working studio located on Route 6A in Dennis Village, set back in the small yellow building across from the gas station at Old Bass River Road.

3. Scargo Pottery & Art Gallery

Scargo Potters 508-385-3894
Off Route 6A, 30 Dr. Lord's Road South, Dennis, MA 02638
Website: www.scargopottery.com
Open Year Round, seven days: Summer 10–6. Winter 10–5.
Founded in 1952 by Harry Holl, Scargo Pottery is the longest functioning pottery studio on the Cape, featuring the work of three potters. The open studio space, situated in a unique woodland environment above Scargo Lake, features the distinctive high-fire ceramics of its three resident artists: wheel-thrown and slab-built functional pieces, sculpture, tiles, lamps and garden pieces, as well as exhibitions of paintings, jewelry and other media.

4. Odyssey Stoneware

Josephine Glazebrook 508-896-4489
774 Main Street, Route 6A, Brewster, MA 02631
Website: www.odysseystoneware.com
Email: potlover1@hotmail.com
After thirty years of creating pottery, both in Vermont and New York, I remain fully committed to the importance of function and the challenge of beauty in form and color. My glazes aspire to reflect the radiant rainbow of our natural world and my pots have all been tweaked to do their thing with ease and grace. Meet me across from the Drummer Boy Park.

5. Heart Pottery

Diane Heart 508-896-6189
1145 Main Street, Route 6A, Brewster, MA 02631
Website: www.dianeheartpottery.com
Open year-round 10–5. Open Sun. by chance.
This year marks Diane's 24th year in this location. She specializes in functional and decorative porcelain and is known for her ever-changing raku-fired pieces. Her apprentice Chelsie Starace is creating her own line. Most days a potter's wheel will be turning for your viewing. The studio also features the fine art scenic photography of Diane's husband, Mark Preu.

6. Clayworks

Rubyanne & Clayton Calderwood 508-255-4937
3820 Main Street, Route 6A, East Brewster, MA 02631
Website: www.claytonscayworks.com
Email: clayton1010@verizon.net
Open Wed.–Sat. 10–5. Winter (Jan. 1–Apr. 1) by appointment.
Clayton works in porcelain and stoneware. His works range from fine pots, kitchenware and lamps to abstract plaques, mammoth urns, planters and vases. The latest and greatest are the large fish platters that double up as an interior/exterior sculptural wall element. Come by and see the gallery and studio.
